

Grenoble, July 16, 2007

Dear Madam, Dear Sir,

We invite you to join us for the 7th session of the EFPG Days which will be held on October 16-18, 2007, during and at the same place as the ATIP Congress and exhibition in Grenoble - Alpexpo, France.

During the three days of this short-course you will be informed about the fundamentals and state of the art of the following themes (see the programme attached):

chemical cooking, fibres characterisation and bleaching.

Please note that half a day will be devoted to practical work: you will be able to use the models developed by EFPG for cooking and bleaching simulations, and will be trained to fibre microscopy and morphology analysis.

The instructors will be : Christine Chirat, Dominique Lachenal, Nathalie Marlin, Gérard Mortha, Raphaël Passas and Christian Voillot.

The content of the lectures will be specially organized to fit an audience of mill production personnel, engineers and researchers from equipment and chemical suppliers. The presentations will be made in English. Time will be left for discussions and exchanges and special care will be taken to make this event most fruitful and enjoyable.

Please find attached the registration form. Upon reception of your registration form we will send you all the details concerning the accommodation, location,

Looking forward to welcoming you to Grenoble next October,
Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dominique Lachenal
EFPG Days Chairman

Dr Christine Chirat
Program Chairperson
